Ashurst is a type of young men found in great abundance throughout the West, who are making themselves useful citizens. Mr. Ashurst was born in the State of Nevada in 1874, and the next year he was brought by his parents to Arizona, where he has continuously resided. His father, a native of Kentucky, pioneer and prospector, was accidentally killed by an explosion in a mine in the Grand Canyon many years ago. His mother, a native of Missouri, heroically endured the hardships incident to life on the Arizona frontier. He left the Flagstaff public school at the age of 15 to become a cowboy, and during the next four years rode the range in Coconino, Navajo, and Apache counties. At the age of 19 he was appointed a deputy by Sheriff Sandy Donahue, of Coconino County, which position he creditably filled. After he left the sheriffs office, he went...
