Creative Team Publishing, United States, 2014. Hardback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Being in New Hampshire provides me with a profound sense of home and place, and a growing sense of the hidden, a wealth of reflection on both joys and striving, not just for survival-although there is plenty of that-but for thriving. Here I can feel the natural rhythmic continuo of living each season both intuitively and consciously, for all that season uniquely provides. At the end of a season, there are some satisfactions; at the same time a relinquishing, sometimes sad, of that season must take place as the next manifests itself. We will miss some of that season s gifts, even while we anticipate the beauties of the one coming in. And within all the richness of experience, still there is mystery. I think of my own potential fruition. Do you think about yours? Some of my potential is actuated in written words. I think on the life-cycle of my dreams denials and joyous fulfillments, what I hope for now, what I fear, answers received and mysteries presented. They continue in city or country. Consider: what steps, with God s grace, can you continue with, starting now? And who might you companion and nurture in their walk with God? The God-imprinted heart conceives of hope even in uprootings, in seeming failures-to-thrive, even in the face of death, and can come to perceive life events as God-directed shifts in their path. The God-heart can envision, therefore, as it were, trees not planted yet, and so plants and waters anyway. Even without seeing or grasping yet all that is, for a season, hidden, there is love, and there is joy. May you see these things in this...
