Not illustrated. 1693 Excerpt: . . . they are the greatest means to bring up mens assent to a full and quieting rest on that security to which they must trust themselves for ever, and to let them see, that this even here by the way, is assuredly full, though not yet their enjoyment. HI. Because this faith of assent, should be first followed in the order of nature, as being the very first principle of conversion, to know and be sure, that God hath sent his son into the world to save sinners; wherein as the Holy Ghost is not the Objective, but the Efficient Cause of our Faith, so i not the internal work and Testimony, he gives on the Soul the first Testimony, but must still have respect to the revelation of the Word without, and such demonstrative evidences thereof, wherewith it is revealed to the world. Nor may any ever separate, that which God hath himself so indissolubly joyned. IV. That there is so convincing a necessity and use hereof to the Church, and in a special way wish respect to the youth, for a more firm layingif the groundwork of their Christian profession, and for the seed-plot of a blessed and desirable growth amongst such in this day; that they might thus know early, something of these primary grounds and demonstrations of their faith;so also is it a study of that high importance, as I humbly judge should be of notable use for a Manuduction in...
