Headline Publishing Group. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Bananas Can't Fly!: The Autobiography (New edition), Des O'Connor, Des O'Connor rose to stardom following his first television series in 1963. Now, as one of the world's popular and loved entertainers, he recalls revealing moments - both on and off screen - meeting and working with all the major personalities of the day, from Frank Sinatra and the Beatles to Barbara Streisand, Tony Blair and the Spice Girls. From his childhood struggle against ill-health in London's impoverished East End to his current position as international showbiz icon, Des O'Connor talks with humour and affection about his friends and family; about his relationships with fellow celebrities; and about what really happens behind the scenes of his talk show. The unique syle, personality and charm that have endeared him to audiences, shine through teh pages of his autobiography.
