SWIPE (PAPERBACK)

Createspace, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 279 x 216 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Dustin Dusty Cann, 37-year old, inventive art professor, has achieved his lifetime goal. For Dusty, newly tenured as professor of printmaking, life is good. His admiring students, loyal wife and a promising business making art printing presses of original design assures him. Money and awards are flowing in. Ambitious and feeling invincible (and goaded by his Muse) he becomes obsessed with the rumored of a secret society of holders of a high award for Great World Teachers. Striving to be noticed, he allows an unqualified, challenging and unsavory student to take his class. He is Greg Potter, Jr., 27, a rich, spoiled, unscrupulous medical student (and scion of the University Godfather) who takes Dusty for a tool in his own ambitions. When a furious controversy arises over Dusty s radical teaching simultaneously with an accident involving his art press, Dusty is pressured by lawsuits, academic furor and campus politics. His mind crumbles, made worse by a head-injury. Hospitalized and judged unfit to teach, he is dismissed from teaching. In a forced sale, his press business is lost to Greg Potter s father, a renowned brain surgeon. The doctor sends Dusty-who s in and out of comas-to an island recovery village. His stressed-out wife, feeling helpless, leaves to care for her ailing hotelier sister in Brazil. An ambulance delivers a comatose Dusty to Two Dog Island, north of Seattle, landing at the Puntaville ferry dock. Dusty s speech is impeded with purpose tremors. He takes up writing as therapy, adapting to an Apple computer at the Puntaville library. Nights, in fantastic, vivid dreams he re-encounters his muse, a woman who interprets his dreams-her fall to Earth, fateful kidnappings and...
